Colleagues:

During the month of July, some temporary but important leadership changes are taking place in Academic Affairs, and I'd like to catch you up on those.

In the College of Education and Behavioral Sciences, the new Dean, Corinne Murphy, will not assume her duties until August 1, so I have asked Richard Miller to serve as Interim Dean for the month of July.

The university is currently searching for an Associate Provost for Global Learning and International Affairs, but that search has not yet concluded. Gordon Johnson has been serving as our Chief International Officer, but with his retirement on June 30, Doug McElroy and I will share those duties until the new Associate Provost arrives.

As part of the transition in the Provost's Office, I've asked Merrall Price to serve as a Special Assistant to the Provost for the period July 1 through December 31. Merrall is currently moving from University College to an Associate Dean position in Potter College, and I appreciate her willingness to step in and assist Terry Ballman during her first semester as Provost.

Also, because Terry will not assume her duties as Provost until August 1, the President has asked me to continue as Provost until July 31.
